

ELITE Fashions seeks a

SALES REPRESENTATIVE

We are a small but select company of designers and textiles artisans producing fine clothing and custom ordered yard goods from quality natural fibres, especially wool and linen. Our classic original designs are intended for the luxury market and have already won several prestigious design awards. We are looking for a special person to implement our marketing strategy, introducing our product lines to quality clothing retailers nationwide, and building our market share. This person must also demonstrate perseverance and initiative.

The successful applicant will have a Diploma in Business and at least three years experience in the textiles or garment industry. Some sales experience is a must, and some managerial experience preferable. Salary is negotiable and will include commission and performance bonuses.

Please contact Ms. Cynthia Pippy at 211 Maple Boulevard This Town, to arrange an interview.