

National Postal Corp requires A SYSTEMS ANALYST

to maintain internal network
and database systems,
train staff in software applications and other duties as assigned by the Information Systems Manager.

Must have a degree in computer science with experience in programming, database and business software,
installations and troubleshooting.
Good communications and teamworking skills are also essential.

Résumés with references attached should be directed to:
National Postal Corp., Human Resources Division, P.O. Box
1000, Stn.A