

Do you love children? Are you a responsible and caring person? Are you creative? Imaginative? You may be just the person we're looking for!

Willow Tree Daycare Center

now in its fifth year of operation, is seeking a new

DAYCARE WORKER

to assist in the supervision of preschool children. The successful applicant will be responsible for helping to lead children in educational and recreational activities which stimulate their intellectual, physical, and emotional growth. This is an ideal opportunity for a mature but fun-loving individual. High School Graduation, excellent references, and some childcare experience are a must.

Candidates should include a detailed résumé, complete with three references, and submit to: Willow Tree Daycare Center, 11 Willow Tree Road, Elora.

