

METRO REGION COMMUNITY HEALTH

Outreach Worker in Youth Services

Duties will include contacting, counselling, and referring at-risk youth in a downtown drop-in centre. Your main responsibility will be making contact with young people on the street and encouraging them to use community health resources that are available to them. Some administrative and clerical duties will also be

- have a Bachelor's Degree in Social Work.
- have experience dealing with adolescents and young adults.
- be mature, self-reliant, and extremely tolerant.
- have a genuine desire to help others in a difficult environment.

Flexible hours can be arranged to accommodate graduate students, but the applicant must be available for

Please send your completed résumé/application to: Ms. Geraldine Whalen, Human Resources Department, Metro Community Health, P.O. Box 3467, Stn. B.