

The Daily Telegram

requires a

R E P O R T E R

The successful applicant must be energetic, enthusiastic, creative, inquisitive, and able to work as part of a highly motivated and co-operative team. You will also need:

- ===== minimum two years experience in a newspaper environment
- ===== excellent interviewing and writing skills
- ===== proficiency in word processing programs including WordPerfect and Quark Xpress
- ===== general knowledge of newspaper design and production
- ===== access to a vehicle

Your main responsibilities will be research and reporting in the Current Affairs and Human Interest departments, and other assignments as decided by the managing editor. You should be able to work flexible hours and overtime if necessary to meet deadlines.

Please forward résumé, with recent clippings of your work to: Tod Warren, Managing Editor, The Daily Telegram, P.O. Box 2131, Yourtown.

