

Description:

Our Client is searching for a Junior Environmental Scientist / Registered Environmental Assessor to work EIA projects (EA and EIS preparation); The candidate will be able to participate in determining project impacts, developing means to avoid or reduce impacts, and develop measures and permit requirements for: Hydrocarbon development, transportation, and processing facilities; Metals and minerals mine development; Power development and transmission; Transportation systems; Land use and land remediation analyses; Renewable energy development; Water development.

Requirements:

- Degree in basic life sciences or earth/water sciences
- Strong background in NEPA-related analyses
- Ability to contribute to Environmental Assessments and Environmental Impact Statements and in identifying regulatory and permit requirements, and permit processes.
- Strong leadership and technical skills
- Excellent written and verbal communication abilities
- Valid driver's license

For immediate consideration, please contact Clean McCord at 123-456-7890