

An exciting opportunity exists for an individual with a mix of technical resource management expertise and interpersonal skills to provide compliance and monitoring to Fish and Wildlife Acts and Regulations.

Qualifications:

Highly developed interpersonal and presentation skills

Knowledge of resource management practices and related legislation, including Fish and Wildlife Conservation Act and Endangered Species Act.

Ability to communicate with people of many backgrounds

Proven oral and written communication skills

Good documentation skills

Problem solving and analytical skills

Proven experience with and knowledge of computer operations and programs including Microsoft applications

Valid driver's license.

Apply online