

Alpha Interactive Software Inc

DESIGN PROJECT MANAGER

to oversee software design for clients in trade and finance. With global integration of banking services in effect, this is a career option with a bright future.

Duties include planning, budgeting, and administrating the design team's efforts and consulting with clients. The successful applicant will oversee programmers and technicians and co-operate with other department heads. Applicant must have superior communications and interpersonal skills with demonstrated leadership and problem-solving abilities.

A Bachelor's Degree in Computer Sciences is essential and previous experience in software design teamwork is necessary. Minimum 5 years experience, with at least 3 years in a supervisory capacity.

Applicants may submit résumé with references to:
Judith Weaver, Human Resources, Alpha Computers Inc., 78 Torbay, Estates Danforth.