

Perform tests and collect data in homes related to the energy efficiency of the home. Knowledge of how houses are built is required. Experienced home inspector or construction engineer preferred. Friendly customer-based attitude essential. Must have reliable vehicle and valid driver's license . Additional training will be provided.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Working in an assigned territory providing equipment breakdown loss prevention expertise by conducting routine inspections, risk re-evaluations, claims investigations, work audits and other duties as assigned.

Evaluate home, commercial and industrial locations having equipment ranging from HVAC to boilers/pressure vessels and production equipment.

Service assigned territory in a cost effective manner.

Apply online